ICA

Free. For all.

A launchpad for contemporary art and ideas, ICA is a place of possibility. Free and open to all, ICA is dedicated to supporting artistic practices across disciplines and to serving as a laboratory for risk-taking, community-building, and knowledge-creation. Since 1963, ICA has championed the University's commitment to cultivating the next generation of imaginative creators and thinkers. Through commissions, exhibitions, programs, publications, and special projects, ICA fosters bold experimentation, curiosity, and discovery.

Penn Museum

Explore our shared humanity

The story of humanity is more than ancient history. At the Penn Museum, we connect stories about communities who lived thousands of years ago to here and now. From the very first cities of the middle east to the timeless traditions of Native American voices, our past connects us to our future.

Open your mind and world.
